Why Do We Care about Revenue and Taxes?

Wealthiest 400 American's Wealth as a Share of the Economy (total annual US national income)

As of 2021, it is 21.6%
Half of WA State Revenues Come from the Sales Tax

Our out-dated tax code looks much like it did in 1935

- Sales Tax: 50%
- Property Tax: 16%
- Public & Utility: 2%
- B&O Tax: 19%
- Other: 15%

Investment in the Public Good Hasn’t Kept Up

WA State Spending as a Percentage of Total State Personal Income

Washington has the least fair (most regressive) tax code in the country in which the poorest households pay the most relative to their income.

Though the legislature passed policies to help low-income families and raise taxes on the top 1% in 2021, our taxes remain unfair.

Small and low-margin businesses also bear the brunt of unfair taxes as the B&O tax is on gross receipts rather than profits. Businesses also pay the sales tax.

While we are one of the wealthiest states, funding of the public good hasn’t kept up to meet the needs of the 99%. State spending relative to wealth has declined since the 1980s.

Holistic Tax Reform
5 progressive reforms we can make now for fairer taxes and stronger communities

1. Tax the wealth of the ultra-wealthy
   Rep. Frame's HB 1406 Raises ~$2.5 billion/year

2. Reform the state estate tax

3. Close the inheritance tax loophole

4. Eliminate Legal Fines and Fees (LFOs)
   High rates of interest penalize low-income people

5. Reduce targeted property taxes to prevent displacement

2022 Legislative Session
January - April 2022
A wealth tax introduced by Rep. Frame 2021, HB 1406 would raise $2.5 billion/year

How it works

- Structured like a property tax
- Taxes certain intangible property, such as stocks and bonds (not held in retirement accounts), worth more than $1 billion

SCENARIO A

Property Tax
- Change the 1% revenue limitation
- Allows total property tax collections to go up by more than 1% year-over-year
- Property taxes are regressive

SCENARIO B

- Wealth Tax
  - Decreases regressive property tax and taxes the intangible wealth (assets like stocks) of billionaires, making this very progressive

SCENARIO C

- Employer compensation tax
  - Value added tax on businesses
  - Eliminate B&O tax
  - The VAT and employer compensation tax are more progressive than the B&O
  - Multiple revenue sources are needed to replace B&O revenue

SCENARIO D

- Employer compensation tax
  - Margins tax on businesses
  - Eliminate B&O tax
  - The margins (i.e., profits) tax and employer compensation tax are more progressive than the B&O
  - Multiple revenue sources are needed to replace B&O revenue

SCENARIO E

- Flat rate personal and corporate income tax
  - Property tax
  - Sales tax
  - Eliminate B&O tax
  - Replaces and reduces regressive taxes with an income tax
  - More fair system than the status quo for individuals and business

SCENARIO F

- Progressive personal and corporate income tax
  - Property tax
  - Sales tax
  - Eliminate B&O tax
  - Replaces and reduces regressive taxes with a progressive tax
  - Progressive income taxes are among the most fair and sustainable over time

Tax Reform Beyond the 2022 Legislative Session

Progressive  How much we pay in taxes is based on our capacity to pay

Ample  We collect enough revenue to fund public programs and services our communities need to thrive

Sustainable  We create a system designed to last
